Supervisor Burke made the following statement:

"A crisis in County schools exists, with over 20 high schools experiencing serious tensions or inter-group violence on their campuses in school year 2004-2005.

"The County Commission on Human Relations, the Los Angeles County Office of Education and several State and National associations for educators will co-sponsor a first-ever conference on September 17, 2005, from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., for school administrators on effective ways to respond to growing tensions on school campuses and to offer practical peer-to-peer guidance on dealing with school community crisis due to inter-group violence.

"It is desirable to have the broadest possible participation in this event from all school districts in the County, and it is essential to keep the cost as low as possible."

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Burke, seconded by Supervisor Yaroslavsky, unanimously carried, the Board waived the $8.00 parking fee for 100 cars totaling $800.00, excluding the cost of liability insurance, at the Music Center garage for participants of the Los Angeles County Administrator Conference 2005, to be held at the Walt Disney Concert Hall on September 17, 2005.
